COLD WAVE SWEEPS IN ON NORTHWEST WIND

TEMPERATURE FALLS 66 DEGREES AT YANKTON, S. D.

IN ILLINOIS, INDIANA, OHIO, MICHIGAN, WISCONSIN 40 DEGREE DROPS

DULUTH SCHOOLS CLOSED YESTERDAY BECAUSE OF INTENSE COLD

St. Paul, Dec. 14.—No relief from the cold wave that is holding the northwest in its grip was promised today.

The weather bureau said that while it will be generally fair tonight and Wednesday, the mercury will descend again to sub-zero depths, reaching around 15 below. It will be "not quite so cold" Wednesday.

Some of the minimum temperatures reported today were:

By tonight most of the U. S. from the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic coast, excepting central and southern Florida, was expected by the United States weather bureau to be experiencing severest weather of an already unusually cold early winter season.

The storm was expected to bring New York City and the rest of the east its coldest weather of the year, accompanied by winds that would reach gale force north of Sandy Hook the weather bureau predicted.

Already the cold wave has taken the lives of eight in western United States and Canada and icy tracks caused a train collision at Northrup, Minn., with injury to the engineer.

Most of the United States and Canada were suffering today from the coldest weather of the winter, or had been warned by the weather bureau to prepare for freezing temperatures.

The death list in the west and northwest attributed to the cold was believed to have mounted to 15 with the report of five prospectors lost near Winnipeg and thought to have perished.

The midwest suffered severely. Temperatures around zero and in some cases far below were reported in most states in that section.

The loss of life included two deaths from exposure in Denver, where it was 10 below, one death in Minneapolis, one in St. Paul, two in Tacoma, two in Seattle and two in the province of Alberta.

In some sections schools were closed because of the cold and in the big cities extensive relief work was planned to relieve suffering among the poor.

The cold wave sweeping south-eastward from Alaska was expected to strike the eastern seaboard late today or tonight. In its descent it struck down through Kansas and Missouri where it was five below, into Oklahoma and Texas. Snow was reported in the Texas Panhandle.

At Milwaukee several men were taken to the hospital with frozen feet or hands after 100 workers had labored all night to free a car ferry which went aground in Lake Michigan.

New York, after several days of fog and chilling dampness, awaited the cold weather with apprehension. The fog which had held many ships imprisoned in the harbor, lifted today and traffic was resumed.

Chicago, Dec. 14.—Emergency measures to combat the first severe weather of the winter were taken today throughout the middle west as the thermometer hovered near zero and freezing winds continued to sweep the region.

The weather bureau promised no relief in its prediction. The northwest winds, according to the forecast, will continue today and the skies will be clear. In its warnings to shippers the weather department was emphatic in its statements that all merchandise destined to pass through the middle west must be protected from temperatures ranging from zero to 20 degrees below zero.

The cold wave swept in yesterday on a northwest wind from the region of Alaska. Temperatures dropped as much as 45 degrees in many places and one place, Yankton, S. D., reported that the thermometer dropped 66 degrees in 18 hours.

The cold wave brought to the central west the first below zero weather of the present winter.

Arrested in Harrisburg, Pa., several days ago Ormiston was brought here by Chicago and Harrisburg detectives but local offices have not arrested him pending the arrival of a warrant from California.

The warrant is speeding eastward by airplane and it is thought that it will arrive some time today.

Martin in making this announcement said that he planned a court battle to prevent Ormiston's return to California.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 14.—The Los Angeles county grand jury was called in session today to indict Kenneth G. Ormiston, named in the Almee Semple McPherson conspiracy case who is wanted here as a fugitive from justice.

gan and Wisconsin drops of 40 to 50 degrees have been registered since yesterday morning.

In Minnesota some railroads have been forced to send relief trains to allow passengers to continue journeys through places where snow drifts have reached a depth of 10 feet.

Duluth, Minn., schools were closed yesterday because of the intense cold. Other communities are reported to be considering closing the schools if the wave continues.

Throughout the region police stations opened their doors today to unfortunates permitting them shelter. In Chicago special police details patrolled the alleys of the city last night awakening sleeping men who were in danger of freezing while they slept.

At the county agent's headquarters here, 24-hour days have been inaugurated and the work of preparing food, clothing and fuel for the poor is underway.

NORTHWEST NUMBED BY BITTER COLD

FALL-DOHENY OIL CASE IS NEARING END

PROSECUTION CLAIMS DEFENDANTS TRIED TO HIDE BEHIND U. S. FLAG

JURY EXPECTED TO GET CASE TOMORROW AFTER-NOON

Washington, Dec. 14.—(UP)—Albert B. Fall and E. L. Doheny were pictured today to the jury which will decide whether they conspired to defraud the government, both as plotters who indulged in "dirty business" and tried to hide behind the United States flag, and as brilliant patriots, persecuted by prosecution counsel.

Owen J. Roberts, closing his argument for the government, ridiculed what he termed the defense's story that "some admiral tiptoeing around with a war scare in his pocket" went to Doheny and said "Let's save the country—here, take this lease."

Frank J. Hogan, opening summation for the defense, demanded emotionally if the jury thought Doheny was "a liar, a briber, a deceiver, a traitor" and painted the oil millionaire as an aged man, who must expect death at any moment, and who "offered the life of his only son to his country in war time."

Roberts pleaded with the jury "not to wrap the United States flag around Doheny and call him a patriot."

Hogan defended the $100,000 Doheny-Fall loan as a legitimate transaction between two friends and urged the jury "not to follow the tortuous channel of thought of the government, out of this court room into the prison cell."

Referring to Mrs. Doheny, "the little woman," Hogan defended her part in keeping the torn half of the note Fall gave Doheny for the $100,000.

Then the fiery little defense chief turned to the testimony of former Secretary of the Navy Denby and excoriated the government for what he said was his characterization of him as a "booby."

"Roberts treated Denby, that patriotic man, as he would a pickpocket in the police court," Hogan shouted. "He told you Denby was a booby, that he was unfit for public office, and that he did not know what he was talking about."

Ending eulogy of Denby's war record, Hogan said:

"Denby risked his life for his country where the lawyers in this case are merely risking their voices."

NORWEGIAN SHIP FOUNDERS; ALL ABOARD DROWNED

London, Dec. 14.—(UP)—All the crew and passengers of the Norwegian steamer Balholm have been drowned in the wreck of the ship in Akrafjorde Bay, Iceland, a message to Lloyd's from Reykjavik said today.

Platteville, Wis., Dec. 14.—(UP)—One hundred and fifty persons attending a motion picture theater here last night had a miraculous escape from death when fire broke out in the basement of the building and spread rapidly through the structure.

The spectators in the theater at the time clambered down a fire escape to safety.

A unique angle of the fire was the fact that the Platteville fire department is housed in the same building. Despite efforts by the local firefighters to quell the blaze and later reinforcement from Dubuque, the structure was practically demolished by the fire.

SIX PHYSICIANS TRYING TO SAVE JAPANESE KING

Hayama, Japan, Dec. 14.—(UP)—Six physicians today were working desperately to prolong the life of Yoshihito, emperor of Japan, whose life seemed to be forfeited to pneumonia.

Tokio, Dec. 14.—(UP)—A dispatch from Hayama today said that an official bulletin had announced Emperor Yoshihito's condition as follows: Temperature 39 centigrade, pulse 118, respiration 26. The pneumonic condition persisted in the right lung. It was understood Prince Regent Hirohito, the emperor's eldest son, had cancelled his plans to return to Tokio and would remain at his father's bedside.

CIRCUS ELEPHANT ESCAPES IN KANSAS

BIG GAME HUNTERS TURN ATTENTION FROM RABBITS TO CATCHING BIG BEAST

Garnett, Kas., Dec. 14.—(UP)—Big game hunters in Anderson county today turned their attention from Jack rabbits to elephants as the efforts to capture Diamond, escaped circus elephant, continued.

Armed with everything from warrants to 10 gauge shotguns, sheriff's posse, mounted and afoot, trekked through the Kansas jungles of last summer's alfalfa and corn fields while Diamond cavorted around, just over the next hill.

Diamond, still in the rough, and old Tex, his partner, tired of their ton of hay a day and a place to sleep at "Honest Bill" Newton's place near here. "Honest Bill" owns a circus and in the winter keeps his animal acts in a big barn. Last Saturday, Diamond and old Tex stampeded with part of the barn around their heels and set out for the great open spaces.

Old Tex soon tired of zero weather and uncertain forage and was recaptured. But Diamond could not be coaxed into captivity.

He trumpeted a farewell to old Tex and lumbered on with a flit of his tail for a charge of buckshot fired against his tough carcass by an emboldened farmer mounted on a terror stricken nag.

Diamond has caused excitement in these parts. His trail is marked by battered outbuildings, dead pigs and ruined fences. He has appeared suddenly and noisily in barnyards just at chore time, frightened farmers into haylofts and horses and cows into the adjoining township.

So far the posse has been unable to have much influence on the wayward Diamond.

"Let him alone, he won't hurt anything and he'll come back," argues "Honest Bill."

"That's just what every farmer who has seen Diamond is afraid of."

ROY NUNN TO SOON START SERVING HIS SENTENCE

Marquette, Mich., Dec. 14.—(UP)—Roy Nunn, who was found guilty here last night of murder in connection with the death of Emil Skoglund and Arvid Erickson, game wardens, and who was sentenced to life imprisonment, was expected to start his sentence today.

The wardens were killed September 22 and Nunn was arrested several days later and confessed the murders. He led officers to a Lake Superior dock near here, where he had thrown the bodies after weighting them. The wardens, it was said, were looking for Nunn for questioning in connection with "headlighting" deer.

NOW UP TO THE SENATE FOR CONSIDERATION

EXPECTED TO BE ADOPTED BEFORE CONGRESS ADJOURNS FOR HOLIDAYS

ANNUAL BILL LONG CALLED "PORK BARREL" BY CONGRESSMEN, SENATORS

By PAUL R. MALLON (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Dec. 14.—The rivers and harbors bill, which contemplates important changes in development of the midwestern waterways comes up in the senate today for continuous consideration until its final disposition.

Under a parliamentary agreement, it probably will be adopted before congress adjourns next week for the Christmas holidays.

The annual bill, a "pork barrel" into which congressmen and senators attempt to cram their local river and creek dredging program by inter-change of support, this year carried the long delayed program for improvement of river traffic facilities of vital importance from the Alleghenies to the Rockies.

Chief interest centers in the Illinois river project for opening a water route from the Great Lakes to the Gulf. A fight against the scheme is being laid by Senator Willis, republican, Ohio, and other lake state senators, who charge diversion of the lake water will lower the level of the Great Lakes and interfere with lake shipping.

Compromises designed to mend differences over the provision have been unsuccessful.

The bill carries an appropriation of $59,419,000 to carry out government developments. As passed by the house, it carried $83,558,000 including $50,000,000 for development of the Missouri river from Kansas City to Sioux City. This was reduced to $12,000,000 by the senate committee.

An effort will be made on the floor to restore the original provision.

CAR FERRY STILL FAST ON ROCKS

CREW OF 100 MEN LABORED VAINLY TO FREE IT FROM FOX POINT

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 14.—(UP)—Car ferry No. 18, which went aground off Fox Point near here yesterday, was still fast on the rocks today after a crew of 100 men had labored through most of the night in an effort to release it.

Icy blasts from the north which whipped the sea into fury and sent the mercury down below zero hampered the men in their work and resulted in several going to hospitals with frozen hands and feet.

Hans Quamme, coast guardman, collapsed while working with the comrades on the stranded vessel and was brought to a hospital here. He was frozen about the hands, face and throat, according to attending physicians.

QUESTION FARM HAND IN OLSON CASE

KNUTSON COLLAPSED AFTER BEING QUESTIONED BY PROSECUTOR

MUMBLINGS OF KNUTSON MAY SOLVE MYSTERY OF OLSON GIRL'S DEATH

Prairie Du Chien, Wis., Dec. 14.—(UP)—The incoherent mumblings of Edwin Knutson, farm hand on the farm of Albert Olson, father of Erdman Olson, 18-year-old youth sought in connection with the murder of his sweetheart, Clara Olson, may solve the mystery of the girl's death, authorities here believed today.

Knutson, known to have been an admirer of Clara, collapsed after being questioned by Prosecutor J. S. Earl here last Saturday and his conversation has been delirious. From his talk authorities have deduced that Knutson believes Albert Olson knows more about the crime with which Erdman is charged than he told on the witness stand at the inquest into the girl's death.

Authorities believe attempts may have been made to arrange a marriage between Clara Olson and Knutson because the girl was about to become a mother and because she had written them telling them Erdman was the father of her unborn child.

District Attorney Earl told the United Press today that he will question Knutson again as soon as the lad's condition permits. Knutson is at the home of an uncle near Mount Sterling. Telephone lines there were reported not to be in working order.

2 DAYLIGHT BANDITS ROB 'FIVE AND DIME'

Minneapolis, Dec. 14.—(UP)—Two daylight bandits robbed J. Hradecky, manager of a Five and Ten cent store, of $2,000 on Nicollet avenue late Monday and escaped in an automobile.

Accompanied by Dave Smith, an employee, Hradecky was taking the day's receipts to a bank when the bandits stepped from behind their automobile with drawn guns. One asked for the bag in which the money was being carried. It contained $2,000 in currency, $200 in silver and $55 in checks.

FLAPPER BANDIT BAIL FIXED BY JUDGE AT $5,000

Austin, Tex., Dec. 14.—(UP)—Mrs. Rebecca Bradley Rogers charged with the hold-up of the Farmer's National Bank at Buda last Saturday, was admitted to bail at her hearing on application for a writ of habeas corpus here today.

Bail was allowed after bank employees identified Mrs. Rogers as the young woman who forced them into a vault at the point of a pistol, scooped up $1,000 in currency and drove away in an automobile.

Amount of bail was fixed at $5,000.

BOXING FAN LEGISLATOR WANTS LONGER BOUTS

Chicago, Dec. 14.—(UP)—Believing that 15 rounds of boxing provides a much better test of a boxer's ability than does a shorter route, State Senator Edward Hughes, who was instrumental in the passage of the Illinois boxing law, intends to make a fight to have the law amended to permit the longer bouts.

"A champion or challenger should be able to show his superiority over the longer route," the senator said. "I have seen fighters declared winners at the end of 10 rounds that I was certain could not have lasted five rounds longer. Endurance is a factor in any athletic contest and I intend to present my amendment at the next meeting of the legislature."

Platteville, Wis., Dec. 14.—(UP)—
One hundred and fifty persons attending a motion picture theater here last night had a miraculous escape from death when fire broke out in the basement of the building and spread rapidly through the structure.

The spectators in the theater at the time clambered down a fire escape to safety.

A unique angle of the fire was the fact that the Platteville fire department is housed in the same building. Despite efforts by the local firefighters to quell the blaze and later reinforcement from Dubuque, the structure was practically demolished by the fire.

SIX PHYSICIANS TRYING TO SAVE JAPANESE KING

Hayama, Japan, Dec. 14.—(UP)— Six physicians today were working desperately to prolong the life of Yoshihito, emperor of Japan, whose life seemed to be forfeited to pneumonia.
Various stimulants were being used in the effort of science to strengthen the invalid emperor against the disease.

Tokio, Dec. 14.—(UP)—A dispatch from Hayama today said that an official bulletin had announced Emperor
Yoshihito's condition as follows:

Temperature 39 centigrade, pulse 118, respiration 26. The pneumonic condition persisted in the right lung.
It was understood Prince Regent Hirohito, the emperor's eldest son, had cancelled his plans to return to Tokio and would remain at his father's bedside.

CIRCUS ELEPHANT ESCAPES IN KANSAS

BIG GAME HUNTERS TURN AT-TENTION FROM RABBITS TO CATCHING BIG BEAST

Garnett, Kas., Dec. 14.—(UP)— Big game hunters in Anderson county today turned their attention from jack rabbits to elephants as the efforts to capture Diamond, escaped circus elephant, continued.

Armed with everything from warrants to 10 gauge shotguns, sheriff's posses, mounted and afoot, trekked through the Kansas jungles of last summer's alfalfa and corn fields while Diamond cavorted around,
just over the next hill.

Diamond, still in the rough, and old Tex, his partner, tired of their ton of hay a day and a place to sleep at "Honest Bill" Newton's place near here. "Honest Bill" owns a circus and in the winter keeps his animal acts in a big barn. Last Saturday, Diamond and old Tex stampeded with part of the barn around their heels and set out for the great open spaces.

Old Tex soon tired of zero weather and uncertain forage and was recaptured. But Diamond could not be coaxed into captivity.

He trumpeted a farewell to old Tex and lumbered on with a flirt of his tail for a charge of buckshot fired against his tough carcass by an emboldened farmer mounted on a terror stricken nag.

Diamond has caused excitement in these parts. His trail is marked by battered outbuildings, dead pigs and ruined fences. He has appeared suddenly and noisily in barnyards just at chore time, frightened farmers into haylofts and horses and cows into the adjoining township.

So far the posses have been unable to have much influence on the wayward Diamond.

"Let him alone, he won't hurt anything and he'll come back," argues "Honest Bill."

That's just what every farmer who has seen Diamond is afraid of.

FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER

ROY NUNN TO SOON START SERV-ING HIS SENT-ENCE

Marquette, Mich., Dec. 14.—(UP)— Roy Nunn, who was found guilty here last night of murder in connection with the death of Emil Skoglund and Arvid Erickson, game wardens, and who was sentenced to life imprisonment, was expected to start his sentence today.

The warden was killed September 22 and Nunn was arrested several days later and confessed the murders. He led officers to a Lake Superior dock near here, where he had thrown the bodies after weighting them. The warden, it was said, were looking for Nunn for questioning in connection with "headlight-ing" deer.

NOW UP TO THE SENATE FOR CONSIDERATION

EXPECTED TO BE ADOPTED BE-FORE CONGRESS ADJOURNS
FOR HOLIDAYS

ANNUAL BILL LONG CALLED
"PORK BARREL" BY CON-GRESSMEN, SENATORS

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Dec. 14.—The rivers and harbors bill, which contemplates important changes in development of the midwestern waterways comes up in the senate today for continuous consideration until its final disposition.

Under a parliamentary agreement, it probably will be adopted before congress adjourns next week for the Christmas holidays.

The annual bill, a "pork barrel" into which congressmen and senators attempt to cram their local river and creek dredging program by interchange of support, this year carried the long delayed program for improvement of river traffic facilities of vital importance from the Alleghenies to the Rockies.

Chief interest centers in the Illinois river project for opening a water route from the Great Lakes to the Gulf. A fight against the scheme is being laid by Senator Willis, republican, Ohio, and other lake state senators, who charge diversion of the lake water will lower the level of the Great Lakes and interfere with lake shipping.

Compromises designed to mend differences over the provision have been unsuccessful.

The bill carries an appropriation of $59,419,000 to carry out government developments. As passed by the house, it carried $83,558,000 including $50,000,000 for development of the Missouri river from Kansas City to Sioux City. This was reduced to $12,000,000 by the senate committee.

An effort will be made on the floor to restore the original provision.

CAR FERRY STILL FAST ON ROCKS

CREW OF 100 MEN LABORED VAINLY TO FREE IT FROM
FOX POINT

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 14.—(UP)— Car ferry No. 18, which went aground off Fox Point near here yesterday was still fast on the rocks today after a crew of 100 men had labored through most of the night in an effort to release it.

Icy blasts from the north which whipped the sea into fury and sent the mercury down below zero hampered the men in their work and resulted in several going to hospitals with frozen hands and feet.

Hans Quamme, coast guardsman, collapsed while working with his comrades on the stranded vessel and was brought to a hospital here. He was frozen about the hands, face and throat, according to attending physicians.

BREAK FOR LIBERTY COST 2 PRISONERS 5 YEARS IN 'PEN'

St. Cloud, Minn., Dec. 14.—(UP)—
Their break for liberty cost John Murphy and Harry Kurns, five years in the Stillwater penitentiary by sentence of Judge John A. Roesser imposed Monday.

While being taken to a court for arraignment on a charge of having stolen an automobile, Murphy and Kurns broke away from Deputy Sheriff Meeks and Enerett Schoener, son of Sheriff Schoener, but were recaptured after young Schoener had tackled one of them.

STOLE 1,629 'DIAMOND RINGS' FROM '5 AND DIME'

New York, Dec. 14.—(UP)— rings distributed about his person, some strung on a clothes line about his waist.

QUESTION FARM HAND IN OLSON CASE

KNUTSON COLLAPSED AFTER BE-ING QUESTIONED BY PROSECUTOR

MUMBLINGS OF KNUTSON MAY SOLVE MYSTERY OF OL-SON GIRL'S DEATH

Prairie Du Chien, Wis., Dec. 14.—
(UP)—The incoherent mumblings of Edwin Knutson, farm hand on the farm of Albert Olson, father of Erdman Olson, 18-year-old youth sought in connection with the murder of his sweetheart, Clara Olson, may solve the mystery of the girl's death, authorities here believed today.

Knutson, known to have been an admirer of Clara, collapsed after being questioned by Prosecutor J. S.
Earl here last Saturday and his conversation has been delirious. From his talk authorities have deduced that Knutson believes Albert Olson knows more about the crime with which Erdman is charged than he told on the witness stand at the inquest into the girl's death.

Authorities believe attempts may have been made to arrange a marriage between Clara Olson and Knutson because the girl was about to become a mother and because she had written them telling them Erdman was the father of her unborn child.

District Attorney Earl told the United Press today that he will question Knutson again as soon as the lad's condition permits. Knutson is at the home of an uncle near Mount Sterling. Telephone lines there were reported not to be in working order.

2 DAYLIGHT BANDITS ROB 'FIVE AND DIME'

Minneapolis, Dec. 14.—(UP)—
Two daylight bandits robbed J.
Hradecky, manager of a Five and Ten cent store, of $2,000 on Nicollet avenue late Monday and escaped in an automobile.

Accompanied by Dave Smith, an employee, Hradecky was taking the day's receipts to a bank when the bandits stepped from behind their automobile with drawn guns. One asked for the bag in which the money was being carried. It contained $2,000 in currency, $200 in silver and $55 in checks.

DIRECTED VERDICT OF ACQUITTAL FREES BANKER

Austin, Minn., Dec. 14.—(UP)—
A directed verdict of acquittal freed John Voogd, Sr., president of the closed State Bank of Dexter, of charges of accepting deposits in an insolvent institution.

Other charges against Voogd and his two sons are pending as a result of the closing of the bank.

Judge Norman Peterson ordered the jury to acquit Voogd when a defense established that deposits received after a certain date were kept separately.

CRAZED MOTHER DROWNS 2 BABIES IN BATH TUB

Waltham, Mass., Dec. 14.—(UP)— bath tub, Mrs. Elizabeth Leacase attempted suicide by swallowing poison at her home here today.

The children, Betty Ann, 2, and Pauline, five months, were pronounced dead on their arrival at a hospital. The mother was reported in a critical condition.

FLAPPER BANDIT BAIL FIXED BY JUDGE AT $5,000

Austin, Tex., Dec. 14.—(UP)—
Mrs. Rebecca Bradley Rogers charged with the hold-up of the Farmer's National Bank at Buda last Saturday, was admitted to bail at her hearing on application for a writ of habeas corpus here today.

Bail was allowed after bank employees identified Mrs. Rogers as the young woman who forced them into a vault at the point of a pistol, scooped up $1,000 in currency and drove away in an automobile.
Amount of bail was fixed at $5,- 000.

BOXING FAN LEGISLATOR WANTS LONGER BOUTS

Chicago, Dec. 14.—(UP)—Believing that 15 rounds of boxing provides a much better test of a boxer's ability than does a shorter route, State Senator Edward Hughes, who was instrumental in the passage of the Illinois boxing law, intends to make a fight to have the law amended to permit the longer bouts.

"A champion or challenger should be able to show his superiority over the longer route," the senator said.
"I have seen fighters declared winners at the end of 10 rounds that I was certain could not have lasted five rounds longer. Endurance is a factor in any athletic contest and I intend to present my amendment at the next meeting of the legislature."

Several school children suffered frozen hands and feet here today when a cold which sent the temperature down

SEVEREST WINTER WEATHER GRIPS CITY

Temperature Recorded Minimum of 28 Degrees Below
Zero

ROADS HARD HIT

No Buses in or Out of City Today;
Big Drifts
Reported

Bound in the grip of the severest weather of the winter to date which sent the mercury down to the low minimum of 28 degrees below zero officially recorded here last evening, Brainerd and Crow Wing county this morning were engaged in taking stock as to just what consequences the severe weather has wrought.

For two days now Brainerd has been hit by weather of sub zero nature which obtained its start in the icy regions of the Alaskan coast and swept down from the northwest to subside in the southern part of the state, Wisconsin, Iowa, and in Illinois.

Old time weather prognosticators are wondering just why the weather man has played this trick on Brainerd and the northwest, for they ponder back for many years and cannot recall any December when the thermometer has recorded such a story of cold weather.

Officially speaking the weather was 28 degrees below zero at its lowest last evening, gaining a little to 24 degrees below zero at 8 a. m. today. Unofficial weather returns in the city gave different margins of temperatures with as high as 33 degrees at the city hall and as low as 22 degrees in other parts of the city. Three snow plows of the State Highway department were sent out this morning by the district office here to attempt a clearance of the deep snow drifts on the state highways in this district.

Highway No. 27 has already been cleared and is open to traffic but a huge snow drift one half mile this side of Big Lake on No. 27 has forced a blockade, practically impassable in its present state to buses and other travel.

One bus of the Northland Transportation Company succeeded in breaking through this drift but it took two hours to do it.

As a consequence of the severe weather, orders have been received here from headquarters of the Northland Transportation office in Minneapolis that no buses will be expected into Brainerd today nor will any buses be sent out from here without further notice from headquarters.

Snow plows are today battling the huge drift near Big Lake and it is expected that this will be cleared away by tonight.

One exceptionally large drift near Pequot yesterday forced a bus to stall and after several hours of trying the driver gave it up as a bad job and was forced to allow the bus to remain in the drift until today when it is being dug out. The passengers were transferred to an automobile and were transported safely into Brainerd although caution was necessary in driving through the drifts.

State Highways No. 19 and 2 will be open tomorrow if the work of the snow plows today prove successful, is the word given out by the district office of the State Highway Department here.

County roads are completely blocked to traffic and authorities can do nothing until the storm is at an end and men can be sent out with equipment to clear the roads.

Cold weather and the storm is also to blame for the disconnection this morning of nine telephone long distance wires from Brainerd to the cities. Three wires to Minneapolis and St. Paul and six to Duluth and Superior were out of order early this morning but had been repaired before the noon hour, it was learned from the office of the manager of the Brainerd Exchange of the Northwestern Bell Telephone Co.

Fearing split rails and taking extra precaution on account of the cold weather trains are travelling cautiously with the result that while no trouble has been reported on the railroads the trains coming here are all running behind schedule.

Only one case of a frozen water pipe was reported this morning to the city water and light department.

The house was beautiful with Christmas decoration and colors and also a prettily appointed tree. Souvenir gifts were presented to the guests. Delicious refreshments were served.

BABCOCK'S PROGRAM TO FINANCE HIGHWAY EXTENSION

OUR State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Babcock will address another appeal to the legislature to assist him in financing highway extension and making Minnesota one of the best equipped in the Union in regard to highways.

With the completion of the paving to Brainerd there has set in an undercurrent throughout the state for more all weather roads, highways which can be traversed all seasons and which the State Highway department will keep clear of snow and in good working order 365 days in the year.

Minnesota's highway system has commanded the admiration of all motorists, of engineers and other experts. With the continual increase of cars comes also the demand for more and better roads. The extension of motoring to all the year around incurs a further tremendous tax on the resources of the State Highway department. But it's worth a lot in more ways than one to keep open highways. There is no dread about the "breaking up" in spring, for a well kept and well cleared highway has no snow-banks or ice accumulations to combat in the early spring.

Here is what Babcock will ask of the legislature when they meet in January:

Enact a law providing for a $20,000,000 bond issue to complete the trunk highway system.

Increase the gasoline tax from 2 to 3 cents a gallon.

Restore automobile license fees to the higher levels prevailing before the 1925 legislature reduced them.

Establish a state highway patrol force.

Enact a law requiring all vehicles traveling on the state highways at night to be equipped with lights.

Mr. Babcock's program will permit the department to make faster progress in paving the 4,800 miles of unpaved highway which carry traffic of 500 cars a day or more. We believe things at present are getting to a point where the maintenance charges of unpaved roads is eating into the extension of the paved system.

VALUE OF PEAT LANDS

IN his thesis on Peat Soils of Anoka County, County Agent E. G. Roth arrives at conclusions which are of interest to all residents of Crow Wing county, for in our county is also a considerable acreage of these valuable lands. It shows the uses made of peat lands and similar advantage can be taken in our county. We quote as follows:

"The peat lands of Anoka county occupy about 90,000 acres, 31 per cent of its surface, large bogs being found in every township. Of the total peat acreage about 93 per cent has a peat layer of more than 18 inches in depth. Most of it is from 3 to 10 feet deep, although about one-sixth of it is more than 10 feet deep.

"The vegetation of the bogs consists chiefly of redtop, wire-grass, other sedges, tamarack, rushes, willow, elder and poplar brush and cranberries. The wire-grass is used for carpet manufacture, while the red-top and sedges are cut for hay. The most profitable use of the unreclaimed peat lands at present is for the production of wire-grass for carpet manufacture.

Most of the marsh areas are underlain by black or yellow sand and the rest by clay or marl. The numerous marl deposits of the county have a calcium carbonate content varying from 25 to 65 per cent. These could be employed in the reclamation of the limited areas of lime-deficient peat, in their immediate vicinity.

For the reclamation of most of the peat lands of Anoka neither lime nor nitrogen fertilizers will be necessary, but some form of phosphate will be needed in the first year. Potash may be omitted for a year or two, but within a few years at most, it is to be expected that it will prove as deficient as the phosphate does with the first crop.

AUTOMOBILE COURTESY

WE need to cultivate an "automobile courtesy" comparable to the "pedestrian courtesy" which pretty generally obtains. People walking on the street get along very well without jostling one another, and yet put those same people behind the steering wheel of a car, and it is a race as to which can get ahead, a struggle as to which has the right of way. People who drive too fast and people who drive too slow, or those who drive recklessly are just as plain discourteous to the others who are using the roadway at the same time. Furthermore, a little courtesy would immeasurably promote safety on the road. The driver who travels at a normal rate of speed, observes caution where caution should be observed, stops when approaching a main thoroughfare or a railroad crossing, is not only being courteous, but is also following the best safety rule. If all rules of the road were reduced to the simple idea of being courteous, most of our puzzling traffic problems would disappear.—Morris Tribune.

OUR LANGUAGE

A SPLIT infinitive no longer is considered bad form. If this be treason, make the most of it. It was the declaration of Prof. Sterline A. Leonard of the University of Wisconsin, before the English Language congress held recently in Philadelphia.

The occasion seemed to be a sort of open field day for the Philistines. The professors declared that the modern trend in English teaching hoped to enable the individual to "get his idea across" without much regard for the rules of speech. "The less attention paid to rules, the better becomes the expression of the human tongue," Prof. Edward Sapir, of the University of Chicago, is quoted as saying.

The expressions of approval with which the average school boy will indorse the professor's ruling probably will be forceful if not grammatical.—St. Cloud Daily Times.

BRAINERD

25 YEARS AGO

From the Daily Dispatch

Dec. 14, 1901

This morning Officer Mose Do-Rocher of the local police force while standing on the sidewalk on Sixth street slipped and fell and broke his left arm between the wrist and the elbow. He was taken home and Dr. Thayer reset the bone and dressed the wound. The officer will be laid up for some time.

Last night Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Groves gave a dinner at their beautiful home on Sixth street North the event being the second anniversary of their wedding day. A novel feature about the affair was the fact that those who composed the wedding party two years ago partook again last night of the hospitalities of Mr. and Mrs. Groves, with but one or two exceptions. Covers were laid for ten the following being present: Judge and Mrs. W. A. Fleming, and daughter Miss Geraldine, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Martley, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. M. Johnstone, Mrs. Irma Hartley and son Jack and F. B. Johnson. The dining room was artistically decorated with carnations and smiles and presented a very beautiful appearance. Dr. and Mrs. Groves received the congratulations of their friends on the event.

Basketball has become a very popular game at Bemidji.

The past two days have been the coldest that the residents of this city have experienced in the month of December for many years. The sudden drop in temperature came so suddenly that people yesterday felt the chill keenly. It was snowing quite hard at 2 o'clock yesterday morning and during the storm the mercury fell at a most rapid pace and in many places of the city yesterday morning 28 degrees below zero had been reached and it is said about 26 degrees below all day yesterday going down again last night and this morning many thermometers in the city registered from 30 to 32 degrees below zero.

BABCOCK'S PROGRAM TO FINANCE HIGHWAY EXTENSION

OUR State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Babcock will address another appeal to the legislature to assist him in financing highway extension and making Minnesota one of the best equipped in the Union in regard to highways.

With the completion of the paving to Brainerd there has set in an undercurrent throughout the state for more all weather roads, highways which can be traversed all seasons and which the State Highway department will keep clear of snow and in good working order 365 days in the year.

Minnesota's highway system has commanded the admiration of all motorists, of engineers and other experts. With the continual increase of cars comes also the demand for more and better roads. The extension of motoring to all the year around incurs a further tremendous tax on the resources of the State Highway department. But it's worth a lot in more ways than one to keep open highways. There is no dread about the "breaking up" in spring, for a well kept and well cleared highway has no snow-banks or ice accumulations to combat in the early spring.

Here is what Babcock will ask of the legislature when they meet in January:

Enact a law providing for a $20,000,000 bond issue to complete the trunk highway system.

Increase the gasoline tax from 2 to 3 cents a gallon.

Restore automobile license fees to the higher levels prevailing before the 1925 legislature reduced them.

Establish a state highway patrol force.

Enact a law requiring all vehicles traveling on the state highways at night to be equipped with lights.

Mr. Babcock's program will permit the department to make faster progress in paving the 4,800 miles of unpaved highway which carry traffic of 500 cars a day or more. We believe things at present are getting to a point where the maintenance charges of unpaved roads is eating into the extension of the paved system.

VALUE OF PEAT LANDS

IN his thesis on Peat Soils of Anoka County, County Agent E. G. Roth arrives at conclusions which are of interest to all residents of Crow Wing county, for in our county is also a considerable acreage of these valuable lands. It shows the uses made of peat lands and similar advantage can be taken in our county. We quote as follows:

"The peat lands of Anoka county occupy about 90,000 acres, 31 per cent of its surface, large bogs being found in every township. Of the total peat acreage about 93 per cent has a peat layer of more than 18 inches in depth. Most of it is from 3 to 10 feet deep, although about one-sixth of it is more than 10 feet deep.

"The vegetation of the bogs consists chiefly of redtop, wire-grass, other sedges, tamarack, rushes, willow, elder and poplar brush and cranberries. The wire-grass is used for carpet manufacture, while the red-top and sedges are cut for hay. The most profitable use of the unreclaimed peat lands at present is for the production of wire-grass for carpet manufacture.

Most of the marsh areas are underlain by black or yellow sand and the rest by clay or marl. The numerous marl deposits of the county have a calcium carbonate content varying from 25 to 65 per cent. These could be employed in the reclamation of the limited areas of lime-deficient peat, in their immediate vicinity.

For the reclamation of most of the peat lands of Anoka neither lime nor nitrogen fertilizers will be necessary, but some form of phosphate will be needed in the first year. Potash may be omitted for a year or two, but within a few years at most, it is to be expected that it will prove as deficient as the phosphate does with the first crop.

AUTOMOBILE COURTESY

WE need to cultivate an "automobile courtesy" comparable to the "pedestrian courtesy" which pretty generally obtains. People walking on the street get along very well without jostling one another, and yet put those same people behind the steering wheel of a car, and it is a race as to which can get ahead, a struggle as to which has the right of way. People who drive too fast and people who drive too slow, or those who drive recklessly are just as plain discourteous to the others who are using the roadway at the same time. Furthermore, a little courtesy would immeasurably promote safety on the road. The driver who travels at a normal rate of speed, observes caution where caution should be observed, stops when approaching a main thoroughfare or a railroad crossing, is not only being courteous, but is also following the best safety rule. If all rules of the road were reduced to the simple idea of being courteous, most of our puzzling traffic problems would disappear.—Morris Tribune.

A SPLIT infinitive no longer is considered bad form. If this be treason, make the most of it. It was the declaration of Prof. Sterling A. Leonard of the University of Wisconsin, before the English Language congress held recently in Philadelphia.

The occasion seemed to be a sort of open field day for the Philistines. The professors declared that the modern trend in English teaching hoped to enable the individual to "get his idea across" without much regard for the rules of speech. "The less attention paid to rules, the better becomes the expression of the human tongue," Prof. Edward Sapir, of the University of Chicago, is quoted as saying.

The expressions of approval with which the average school boy will indorse the professor's ruling probably will be forceful if not grammatical.—St. Cloud Daily Times.

This morning Officer Mose De-Rocher of the local police force while standing on the sidewalk on Sixth street slipped and fell and broke his left arm between the wrist and the elbow. He was taken home and Dr. Thibault reset the bone and dressed the wound. The officer will be laid up for some time.

Last night Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Groves gave a dinner at their beautiful home on Sixth street North the event being the second anniversary of their wedding day. A novel feature about the affair was the fact that those who composed the wedding party two years ago partook again last night of the hospitalities of Mr. and Mrs. Groves, with but one or two exceptions. Covers were laid for ten the following being present: Judge and Mrs. W. A. Fleming, and daughter Miss Geraldine, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. M. Johnstone, Mrs. Irma Hartley and son Jack and P. B. Johnson. The dining room was artistically decorated with carnations and smilax and presented a very beautiful appearance. Dr. and Mrs. Groves received the congratulations of their friends on the event.

MR. ZEININGER, UNITED PRESS EXPERT, SPEAKS TO THE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

HE ALSO ANSWERED QUESTIONS
ASKED BY MEMBERS OF THE
BRAINONIAN STAFF

STAFF SEES UNITED PRESS FILM
IN THE EVENING

Tuesday was a very instructive day for the students, especially for those on the staff of the school paper, in the subject of present day journalism. Mr. Zeininger, a representative of the United Press, gave a very instructive and interesting talk on the tremendous work carried on by this great newspaper syndicate. He dwelt on the number of newspapers served by the United Press Association, the number of countries also served (36 in all) and related some of his experiences in his field work. As he has been all over the world in the work, he had much to tell of the manner in which newspaper work is carried on in different countries, also of some of his experiences with natives of other countries.

Immediately after this speech all of the students on the Brainonian staff adjourned to a smaller study room where Mr. Zeininger answered questions asked by the staff members. He here also dwelt on the efficiency and great circulation of the Japanese newspapers, which he said, had the greatest daily circulation of any of the world's papers. In his talk with those present he stressed the importance of early training, stating that, "National or international journalistic work is the same as that found in any small community but on a much larger scale."

As a conclusion to the day's instructiveness the staff in the evening, with tickets given them by Mr. Hoffbauer, went to the Lyceum Theatre where a very absorbing news reel entitled "Around the World and Around the Clock with the United Press" was shown. In it were shown many of the United Press buildings and activities in the different cities over the world. It was particularly interesting due to the personal glimpse of the newspaper men of many nationalities.

The Brainonian staff wishes especially to thank Mr. Hoffbauer for the tickets which he gave them so they might get an idea of the great forces used around the world in gathering, transmitting and giving out news to the people of the world.

THE BURGER COLUMN

By HAM and LIM

Many gallant seniors are asking dad for cash;
They are the members of a group—who stand for "class."
Once they get the right amount they head for up town
To buy collegiate belts or a new party gown.

The juniors, as usual, try to keep up in step.
To imitate the seniors in their pomp and pep.
So dads of the juniors are continually broke,
And they don't think that it's such a Christmas joke.

While dads of the sophomores get away with a dollar,
For a hankie or tie will suppress a great holler;
For they have just stepped out from the toy stage, you know,
But, readers, have patience, for in time they'll grow.

A cute little rattle from the five and dime store
Is enough to please them and they ask for no more—
But, freshies, cheer up because it won't be long now
And you'll be seniors, we vow!

Merry Christmas everybody!
From Ham & Lim.
P. S.—Don't put a holy stocking up.

Football the Game

First Quarter—
Finne kicked off seven yards to Lowe who returned the ball valiantly for two yards. Time taken out for Lowe who suffered from a dislocated part of the hair. Trainer Beresford scuttled out on the field without a comb and nujoy pump. Play resumed. Putz dodged alertly through a broken field for two yards before being downed by a ferocious tackle by Patterson. Barnes fumbled and Ellison recovered. Hantala punted five yards to Lawrenz who was downed in his tracks by Wise. Burton tripped Fitzharris and got his team penalized for roughness. Time called. Lowe gathered up his coterie outfit, lost in the last scrimmage and recovered his powder puff. Play resumed. Hanson's side-burns whistled in the wind as he circled right end for three yards. Welliver stuttered through tackle but was stopped before he got through. Brown got hard boiled. Referee Peterson threw Brown for crabbing. Finne was taken out. Brown replaced by Fuller. DeRocheer with a smile on his lips thundered through center for a loss. Barnes messed up the next play, fumbled and recovered. Guin and Creger penalized for delaying the game. Guin sold Creger his head-gear.

Quarter ended.
Second quarter something like the first.

Third quarter much more than either of the two preceding ones.

Fourth Quarter.
Wise kicked off to Patterson who automatically tackled himself. Putz sat on him to clinch the deal. In the next play Rosina confused the signals with the combination of his gya locker and fumbled. Fitzharris fell for Wise. Putz punted to Finne who signaled for a fair catch. Didn't get it. Recovered however.

DeRocheer double-shuffled around left end and toddled for nine yards. Trick play. Burton told a naughty story on left end while Patterson went around right end for three yards. Fuller cracked Ellison who made a ringing appeal to the referee for protection. Referee insulted and told Ellison to get off the field. Ellison peeled off his headgear and wrung his hands as he headed for the sidelines. Brown substituted for Ellison. One minute to play. Putz played a double cross; rolled his eyes toward right end and went around left end with the ball. Finne took an opportunity to drop kick from the 3 yard line and won the game. Fitzharris got his sideburns tangled up with those of Hanson and both fell on Patterson who lost consciousness. Patterson was carried off the field suffering from concussion of the brain singing, "I Didn't Wanta Do It." Fitzharris suffered a nervous breakdown and wept. Game ended. Burton and DeRocheer did not hear the timers gun and remained on the field debating upon the Kansas Nebraska Bill.

Thursday afternoon at four o'clock the Semper Paratus club will hold its annual party for a number of poor children of Brainerd. Last year's party was a success and the club is confident that the party this year will also be a success.

The committee in charge of the entertainment and decorations consists of Viola McKay, chairman, assisted by Orval Herrington, Marian Linneman and Wayne Curtis. The committee has worked hard and the entertainment will make the children happy.

The committee for the lunch and gifts consists of Rose Koering, chairman, assisted by Rachel Evans and Dorothy Hanson.

The club is thankful that they can do this to help some poor children enjoy Christmas. Their only regret is that they cannot do more.

Girl: I got a bump back of my ear which I hurt.

Boy: Yes, and you've got one in front of your ear which keeps you from studying. (Meaning mouth).

A FEW RULES

Probably you will attend some of the basketball games in the course of this winter. If you do, remember these rulings that the faculty have made:

1. On entering the gymnasium group yourselves on the south bleachers.
2. Never get on the floor inside the boundary lines.
3. Always remember not to block up the stair entrance or the fire escape exit.
4. Do not leave the building between halves or the quarters.
5. Our cheer leader, John Fisher, requests that the boys and girls mix together as much as possible because it is so much easier to cheer effectively when they do.

These rules were made to benefit and not harm you.

You will find them easy to observe and when you do observe them you will find things a great deal less complicated.

BRAINERD 16, PINE RIVER 5

LOCALS LED OPPONENTS A MERE CHASE UNTIL THE FINAL WHISTLE

The Blue and White cagers came through with another game to their credit when they defeated the flashy Orange and Black basketball team here Saturday night by a score of 16 to 5. The local team, handicapped with the loss of Wise, star forward, showed their superior strength and several times put the ball through the hoop, finally ending on the long end of the score.

The game started with a flash, with Pine River getting the ball on the tip-off. They worked the ball down under the basket but were stopped by the stone wall defense of the Blue and White. The ball, then in the possession of the locals, was worked into the opponents' territory by a beautiful execution of plays and finally resulted in a field goal. From then on the local squad had almost complete mastery of the ball and led their opponents a merry chase until the final whistle. Coach Beresford used several men during the game and each man went into the play with the determination to do his best. It was in him to help fix the final score. The Blue and White defense was especially spectacular and allowed only one man to get through for Pine River's only field goal. While again the offense was that of remarkable power and cleverness and several times worked the ball into their opponents' territory for another goal.

The Pine River cagers, under the leadership of Captain Ernest Johnson, a former local boy, showed a lot of speed and plenty of pluck and furnished a considerable amount of opposition for the locals, this making the game of much interest.

The line-up:
Brainerd—Guin, c; Fitzharris, f; Orth, f; DeRocheer, g; Lowe, g.
Pine River—Johnson, c; Sutton, f; Fields, f; Sherwood, g; Carlson, g.
Substitutes—Boyd for Fitzharris; Lawrenz for Orth; Bentley for Boyd; Barnes for Lowe.

Gym Notes

The Rough and Ready squad led by Benora Christianson took first honors in gymnastic work for the second six weeks. These girls scored a possible 229 points thus placing themselves six and one-half notches above their closest rival. Scores are given for posture, sportsmanship, proficiency, and skill in games.

Polar Bears Defeat Mules 22-20 in Preliminary

Hope for a star 1926-27 girls basketball team gave a boost last Friday when the Polar Bears defeated the Mules 22-20.

Neither team ever encountered over three points above their opponents except in the first quarter which closed by a score of 9-4 with the Mules on the long end.

TWO PLAYS WILL BE GIVEN FOR BENEFIT OF BRAINONIAN ANNUAL NEXT MONDAY

Brainonian Annual

The Brainonian Annual is not, as one Freshmen boy last year thought, something that one gets every week. The Annual is a year book containing everything worthy of publication which happens in the school term, not a book of the seniors, by the seniors and for the seniors as some of the under classmen apparently believe. While it does contain individual pictures of the seniors, it also contains pictures of all the other classes. It has in it a complete resume of athletics, activities, organizations, and as I have already stated, everything of importance.

This book is issued at the expense of a great deal of time and work on the part of the comparatively few people on the staff, and all we're asking of the student body in general is to buy a copy of this book costing us about $2.50 for $1.00.

Even laying school spirit aside, and looking at it from a business angle, it would seem that it is a bargain which no student could afford to miss. Likewise it is poor business for us, on the staff, to try to raise from six hundred to a thousand dollars for a book which will not have a circulation of over three hundred copies—but then, of course, we get the glory and the honor.

Intention of furnishing some close rivalry, the scoring certainly was a rival but as far as the fighting spirit goes the girls have it down pat, but they did not express it to any great extent since too much of the William Penn motto existed.

Helen Beggs of the Mules and Irene Molstad of the Polar Bears took first places in scoring, each sinking 5 field goals and 2 free throws.

When the holidays are over a chosen team from the Mules and Polar Bears will represent the B. H. S. with out of town quints. Much appreciation is due Gladys Reuter our star guard of two seasons for refereeing the game.

The Athletic Badge Test For Girls

The Athletic Badge Test is composed of a first, second, and third test. Each test includes four main events such as valancing, basketball throw and goal throw, races, volley ball serve, and baseball throw and catch. As the tests advance they become more difficult to conquer. A limited time or a certain number of tries are given for each article in a test.

The rules for the test are:
1. It is necessary to qualify at one time in all four events in any test in order to win a badge. If a candidate fails in the tests one day she may be permitted to practice until she can pass the test.

2. No girl may earn more than one badge in each of the three tests, not having received a badge may she compete for a badge of a higher class until six months have elapsed.

3. Even though girls have not received a first test badge they may qualify for a badge of a higher order.

4. The price of the badge is ten cents, of the certificate three cents, the price to be paid by the applicant. All upper classmen are urged to try for a badge, and in order to, they must report to any gym class and be registered in a gym class.

NORMAL DEPARTMENT

The Institute for rural teachers was held at the court house Dec. 2 and 3 and at the high school on the 4th under the direction of Miss C. Gier, institute director. Over a hundred of the rural teachers of the county attended; also the members of the normal departments of Crosby and Brainerd.

Saturday the officers of the rural schools met at the high school where Mr. Jacobson, director of rural schools, conducted the meeting.

James M. McConnell, commissioner of education, addressed both teachers and officers at a meeting held in the afternoon.

PERSONNEL OF LARGE CAST IS GIVEN, ORCHESTRA TO PERFORM

The high school is displaying its talents along several lines this last week before the holidays. Last night the orchestra held a program; Tuesday the athletes perform, and on next Monday the actors hold forth on the gym floor.

Two one-act plays for the benefit of the Brainonian will be given, one in charge of Miss O'Brien and the other supervised by Miss Tornstrom. The first, "The Dress Rehearsal" is an exceedingly humorous play, recounting the trials of the producers of an amateur performance, and will be thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by any one even remotely connected with amateur theatricals. There is a decided plot, and that, under Miss O'Brien's tutelage is rapidly taking form.

Cast of characters:
The telephone—which is responsible for all the trouble—
Nancy Blythe—a double-barreled heroine—Clarice Halvorson.

Agnes Middleman—peacemaker—Mildred Butka.

Miss Cavendish—otherwise known as "Aunt Sophronia," prim, proper and precise—Marion Linneman.

Lucy—a colored mammy of the old-fashioned type—Helen Paine.

Tom Travers—for whom a little listening is a dangerous thing—Eino Apuli.

Dick Dunder—who rushes in where angels fear to tread—Clarence Wooden.

Harold Huntington—otherwise "Cousin Nat" who never appears—? The other, "Gassed" is a tense and dramatic struggle for the heart of a lovely damsel, Helen Mathewson. The title might lead one to infer that it is a war drama, but the only touch of war is the desperate effort of the two rival lovers to secure the lady's hand. The title "Gassed" is left for the audience to interpret.

Cast of characters:
Dud Elliott—a Senior—Jack Anderson.

Lady Clayton—also a Senior—Howard Nicholson.

Biscuits Nelson—a Junior—Milford Downie.

Puck Evans—also a Junior—Harold Skarold.

Gas Collins—a Freshman—Raymond Nicholson.

These two plays, a brief specialty by Marguerite O'Brien and an opening selection by the orchestra are offered to the public for the sum of 25c and 35c. Eight o'clock is the hour. The high school gym is the place.

Buried Mistakes

"Ah," exclaimed one physician. "We doctors have many enemies in this world."

"Yes," agreed his friend. "But you have many more in the next."

Be the Master

While the word remains yet unspoken, you are the master of it. But after the word is uttered, it is your master.

WHO? WHAT? WHERE?

Mrs. Stone substituted for Miss Gipson Friday.

The Brainonian play, "The Florist Shop," has been changed to the play, "The Dress Rehearsal." This play involves a few more characters.

Thursday the French II class acted one of the plays that they have been studying. It was done in the privacy of their class room with no audience but themselves. The rest of the school missed an amusing sight.

The chemistry classes gave a demonstration which covered the work they have done so far this year.

"Have you your note book finished?" Thus the Seniors fearfully ask one another. You see they have to make a note book for English IV and in it they have to have "Macbeth," "Hamlet" and other things pertaining to Shakespeare. Many of them have clever illustrations.

A few grade school teachers appeared on the scene last Thursday night for basketball practice. If enough of them come out to make a team, the high school faculty and they will have some good games.

Mr. Johnson's, Miss Dolven's and Miss Lohr's assemblies are 100 per cent strong on the Red Cross membership list. The high school has done better this year than it has before.

They Sure Can

"Can a woman keep a secret?" asked Brown.

"I'll say they can," replied Smith. "I was engaged to my girl two or three weeks before I knew anything about it."

MR. ZEININGER, UNITED PRESS EXPERT, SPEAKS TO THE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

HE ALSO ANSWERED QUESTIONS
ASKED BY MEMBERS OF THE
BRAINONIAN STAFF

Tuesday was a very instructive day for the students, especially for those on the staff of the school paper, in the subject of present day journalism. Mr. Zeininger, a representative of the United Press, gave a very instructive and interesting talk on the tremendous work carried on by this great newspaper syndicate. He dwelt on the number of newspapers served by the United Press Association, the number of countries also served (36 in all) and related some of his experiences in his field work. As he has been all over the world in the work, he had much to tell of the manner in which newspaper work is carried on in different countries, also of some of his experiences with natives of other countries.

Immediately after this speech all of the students on the Brainonian staff adjourned to a smaller study room where Mr. Zeininger answered questions asked by the staff members. He here also dwelt on the efficiency and great circulation of the Japanese newspapers, which he said, had the greatest daily circulation of any of the world's papers. In his talk with those present he stressed the importance of early training, stating that, "National or international journalistic work is the same as that found in any small community but on a much larger scale."

As a conclusion to the day's instructiveness the staff in the evening, with tickets given them by Mr. Hoffbauer, went to the Lyceum Theatre where a very absorbing news reel entitled "Around the World and Around the Clock with the United Press" was shown. In it were shown many of the United Press buildings and activities in the different cities over the world. It was particularly interesting due to the personal glimpse of the newspaper men of many nationalities.

The Brainonian staff wishes especially to thank Mr. Hoffbauer for the tickets which he gave them so they might get an idea of the great forces used around the world in gathering, transmitting and giving out news to the people of the world.

THE BURGER COLUMN

By HAM and LIM

Many gallant seniors are asking dad for cash;

They are the members of a group— who stand for "class."

Once they get the right amount they head for up town

To buy collegiate belts or a new party gown.

The juniors, as usual, try to keep up in step.

To imitate the seniors in their pomp and pep.

So dads of the juniors are continually broke.

And they don't think that it's such a Christmas joke.

While dads of the sophomores get away with a dollar.

For a hankie or tie will suppress a great holler;

For they have just stepped out from the toy stage, you know.

But, readers, have patience, for in time they'll grow.

A cute little rattle from the five and dime store

Is enough to please them and they ask for no more—

But, freshmen, cheer up because it won't be long now

And you'll be seniors, we vow!

Merry Christmas everybody!

From Ham & Lim.

P. S.—Don't put a holy stocking on from studying. (Meaning mouth).

Football the Game

First Quarter—
Finne kicked off seven yards to Lowe who returned the ball valiantly for two yards. Time taken out for Lowe who suffered from a dislocated part of the hair. Trainer Beresford scuttled out on the field without a comb and nujoy pump. Play resumed. Putz dodged alertly through a broken field for two yards before being downed by a ferocious tackle by Patterson. Barnes fumbled and Ellison recovered. Haultala punted five yards to Lawrenz who was downed in his tracks by Wise. Burton tripped Fitzharris and got his team penalized for roughness. Time called. Lowe gathered up his cutex outfit, lost in the last scrimmage and recovered his powder puff. Play resumed. Hanson's side-burns whistled in the wind as he circled right end for three yards. Welliver stuttered through tackle but was stopped before he got through. Brown got hard boiled. Referee Peterson threw Brown for crabbing. Finne was taken out. Brown replaced by Fuller. DeRoche with a smile on his lips thundered through center for a loss. Barnes messed up the next play, fumbled and recovered. Guin and Creger penalized for delaying the game. Guin sold Creger his head-gear.

Quarter ended.
Second quarter something like the first.

Third quarter much more than either of the two preceding ones.

Fourth Quarter.

Wise kicked off to Patterson who automatically tackled himself. Putz sat on him to clinch the deal. In the next play Rosina confused the signals with the combination of his gym locker and fumbled. Fitzharris fell for Wise. Putz punted to Finne who signaled for a fair catch. Didn't get it. Recovered however.

DeRoche double-shuffled around left end and toddled for nine yards. Trick play. Burton told a naughty story on left end while Patterson went around right end for three yards. Fuller cracked Ellison who made a ringing appeal to the referee for protection. Referee insulted and told Ellison to get off the field. Ellison peeled off his headgear and wrung his hands as he headed for the sidelines. Brown substituted for Ellison. One minute to play. Putz played a double cross; rolled his eye toward right end and went around left end with the ball. Finne took an opportunity to drop kick from the 3 yard line and won the game. Fitzharris got his sideburns tangled up with those of Hanson and both fell on Patterson who lost consciousness. Patterson was carried off the field suffering from concussion of the brain singing, "I Didn't Wanta Do It." Fitzharris suffered a nervous breakdown and wept. Game ended. Burton and DeRoche did not hear the timers gun and remained on the field debating upon the Kansas Nebraska Bill.

Thursday afternoon at four o'clock the Semper Paratus club will hold its annual party for a number of poor children of Brainerd. Last year's party was a success and the club is confident that the party this year will also be a success.

The committee in charge of the entertainment and decorations consists of Viola McKay, chairman, assisted by Orval Herrington, Marian Linneman and Wayne Curtis. The committee has worked hard and the entertainment will make the children happy.

The committee for the lunch and gifts consists of Rose Koering, chairman, assisted by Rachel Evans and Dorothy Hanson.

The club is thankful that they can do this to help some poor children enjoy Christmas. Their only regret is that they cannot do more.

Girl: I got a bump back of my ear which I hurt.

Boy: Yes, and you've got one in front of your ear which keeps you from studying. (Meaning mouth).

A FEW RULES

Probably you will attend some of the basketball games in the course of this winter. If you do, remember these rulings that the faculty have made:

1. On entering the gymnasium group yourselves on the south bleachers.
2. Never get on the floor inside the boundary lines.
3. Always remember not to block up the stair entrance or the fire escape exit.
4. Do not leave the building between halves or the quarters.
5. Our cheer leader, John Fisher, requests that the boys and girls mix together as much as possible because it is so much easier to cheer effectively when they do.

These rules were made to benefit and not harm you.

You will find them easy to observe and when you do observe them you will find things a great deal less complicated.

BRAINERD 16, PINE RIVER 5

LOCALS LED OPPONENTS A MERRY CHASE UNTIL THE FINAL WHISTLE

The Blue and White eagles came through with another game to their credit when they defeated the flashy Orange and Black basketball team here Saturday night by a score of 16 to 5. The local team, handicapped with the loss of Wise, star forward, showed their superior strength and several times put the ball through the hoop, finally ending on the long end of the score.

The game started with a flash, with Pine River getting the ball on the tip-off. They worked the ball down under the basket but were stopped by the stone wall defense of the Blue and White. The ball, then in the possession of the locals, was worked into the opponents' territory by a beautiful execution of plays and finally resulted in a field goal. From then on the local squad had almost complete mastery of the ball and led their opponents a merry chase until the final whistle. Coach Beresford used several men during the game and each man went into the play with the determination to do his best. It was in him to help fix the winning score. The Blue and White defense was especially spectacular and allowed only one man to get through for Pine River's only field goal. While again the offense was that of remarkable power and cleverness and several times worked the ball into their opponents' territory for another goal.

The Pine River eagles, under the leadership of Captain Ernest Johnson, a former local boy, showed a lot of speed and plenty of pluck and furnished a considerable amount of opposition for the locals, this making the game of much interest.

The line-up:
Brainerd—Guin, c; Fitzharris, f; Orth, f; DeRoche, g; Lowe, g.
Pine River—Johnson, c; Sutton, f; Fields, f; Sherwood, g; Carlson, g. Substitutes—Boyd for Fitzharris; Lawrenz for Orth; Bentley for Boyd; Barnes for Lowe.

Gym Notes

The Rough and Ready squad led by Benora Christianson took first honors in gymnastic work for the second six weeks. These girls scored a possible 229 points thus placing themselves six and one-half notches above their closest rival. Scores are given for posture, sportsmanship, proficiency, and skill in games.

Polar Bears Defeat Mules 22-20 in Preliminary

Hope for a star 1926-27 girls basketball team gave a boost last Friday when the Polar Bears defeated the Mules 22-20.

Neither team ever encountered over three points above their opponents except in the first quarter which closed by a score of 9-4 with the Mules on the long end.

TWO PLAYS WILL BE GIVEN FOR BENEFIT OF BRAINONIAN ANNUAL NEXT MONDAY

Brainonian Annual

The Brainonian Annual is not, as one Freshmen boy last year thought, something that one gets every week. The Annual is a year book containing everything worthy of publication which happens in the school term, not a book of the seniors, by the seniors and for the seniors as some of the under classmen apparently believe. While it does contain individual pictures of the seniors, it also contains pictures of all the other classes. It has in it a complete resume of athletics, activities, organizations, and as I have already stated, everything of importance.

This book is issued at the expense of a great deal of time and work on the part of the comparatively few people on the staff, and all we're asking of the student body in general is to buy a copy of this book costing us about $2.50 for $1.00.

Even laying school spirit aside, and looking at it from a business angle, it would seem that it is a bargain which no student could afford to miss. Likewise it is poor business for us, on the staff, to try to raise from six hundred to a thousand dollars for a book which will not have a circulation of over three hundred copies—but then, of course, we get the glory and the honor.

Intention of furnishing some close rivalry, the scoring certainly was a rival but as far as the fighting spirit goes the girls have it down pat, but they did not express it to any great extent since too much of the William Penn motto existed.

Helen Beggs of the Mules and Irene Molstad of the Polar Bears took first places in scoring, each sinking 5 field goals and 2 free throws.

When the holidays are over a chosen team from the Mules and Polar Bears will represent the B. H. S. with out of town quints. Much appreciation is due Gladys Reuter our star guard of two seasons for refereeing the game.

The Athletic Badge Test For Girls

The Athletic Badge Test is composed of a first, second, and third test. Each test includes four main events such as valancing, basketball throw and goal throw, races, volley ball serve, and baseball throw and catch. As the tests advance they become more difficult to conquer. A limited time or a certain number of tries are given for each article in a test.

The rules for the test are:
1. It is necessary to qualify at one time in all four events in any test in order to win a badge. If a candidate fails in the tests one day she may be permitted to practice until she can pass the test.

2. No girl may earn more than one badge in each of the three tests, not having received a badge may she compete for a badge of a higher class until six months have elapsed.

3. Even though girls have not received a first test badge they may qualify for a badge of a higher order.

4. The price of the badge is ten cents, of the certificate three cents, the price to be paid by the applicant.

All upper classmen are urged to try for a badge, and in order to, they must report to any gym class and be registered in a gym class.

NORMAL DEPARTMENT

The Institute for rural teachers was held at the court house Dec. 2 and 3 and at the high school on the 4th under the direction of Miss C. Gier, institute director. Over a hundred of the rural teachers of the county attended; also the members of the normal departments of Crosby and Brainerd.

James M. McConnell, commissioner of education, addressed both teachers and officers at a meeting held in the afternoon.

ASTONISHING RETURN TO FORM OF THE NEW YORK
YANKEES

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Dec. 14.—Victory of the Cardinals in the National League pennant race which took the first world's series to St. Louis was perhaps the most interesting feature of the 1926 major league baseball season.

But it was not the only feature of the season that had more than a usual share of interesting events.

Some other events were:
The collapse of the Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Giants.

The astonishing return to form of the New York Yankees.

The fall of Rogers Hornsby as a batting champion.

The smashing comeback of Babe
Ruth.

The romantic and heroic work of Grover Alexander in the final game of the world's series.

The fall of the seven time Baltimore International League champions.

The retirement of Tris Speaker and Ty Cobb.

The release of Eddie Collins as manager of the Chicago White Sox.

The appointment of seven new

major league managers.

The victory of the St. Louis Cardinals in the National League pennant race and in the world's series was perhaps the most popular one ever scored.

The loss of Hornsby's batting championship was a sacrifice he had to make for the team as in the role of a manager in a hot driving race he could not afford to play for himself.

The collapse of the New York Giants was partly the result of a series of accidents and bad breaks, but the differences existing among the Pittsburgh players were so thoroughly aired in public that internal dissension is known to have caused their disappointing season.

After finishing another disappointing season in which he spent much of the time on the bench, Ty Cobb retired as the manager of the Detroit Tigers and George Moriarity, American League umpire, was named in his place.

The disappointing showing of the Cleveland Indians started such a row on Tris Speaker that he quit and decided to go into business.

Salary differences were said to have been responsible for the release of Eddie Collins as manager of the Chicago White Sox.

Other teams that have new managers are the Pirates, Donnie Bush instead of Bill McKechnie; the Red Sox, Bill Carrigan instead of Lee Fohl; the Phillies, Stuffy McInnis instead of Art Fletcher; the Browns, Dan Hawley instead of George Sisler;
the Indians, Jack McAllister instead of Speaker; the White Sox, Ray Schalk instead of Collins.

NATIONAL LEAGUE MEN TO VOTE IN FAVOR OF LANDIS

RESOLUTION SEEKS HIS REAP-POINTMENT UNDER LONG TERM CONTRACT

LATTER MAY INCLUDE A SUB-STANTIAL RAISE IN SALARY

New York, Dec. 14.—(UP)—Club owners of the National League in their annual session here today will vote their confidence in the administration of Commissioner K. M. Landis, with a resolution favoring his reappointment under a new long term contract which may include a substantial increase in salary. The National League may vote for an increase of $10,000 a year in his salary with no change in the existing contract.

Garry Hermann, owner of the Cincinnati club, and former head of the baseball government that was succeeded by the commissioner plan, said he favored the increase and all the club owners who had discussed it with him were for it.

John A. Heydler, president of the league, already has gone on record in favor of the continuation of the present form of government and a new contract for Landis.

The routine will include a report

by the National League president that it was a prosperous and successful season; that the Chicago Cubs did the best business in the league and that the St. Louis Cardinals won the pennant.

The St. Louis club was mentioned frequently in "rumor alley" because of the business differences that are said to have developed between Rogers Hornsby, manager, and his boss, Sam Breadon.

Breadon refused to discuss the case today and said the situation was being over-emphasized.

"Give that," be assured of this truth:
Nothing you could give a pipe-smoker could make more of a hit than a generous supply of Prince Albert . . . mild, mellow, fragrant Prince Albert.

Here, for instance, is the crystal-glass
humidor, all dolled up in holiday clothes.
It contains a full pound of P. A.—the grandest tobacco that ever lined the bowl of a pipe. There's a little sponge in the top of the humidor to keep the tobacco
"just right."

Every pipe-smoker on your list would be tickled to death to find this good-looking package among his gifts on Christmas morning. It will brighten the Big Day for him and furnish deep-down pipe-joy for the days that follow. The Prince Albert humidor, by all means!

This prime favorite of experienced smokers also comes in pound and half-will find Prince Albert in sizes to suit every purse and purpose. If he smokes

a pipe, your Christmas problem is settled

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.

New York, Dec. 14.—Victory of the Cardinals in the National League pennant race which took the first world's series to St. Louis was perhaps the most interesting feature of the 1926 major league baseball season.

But it was not the only feature of the season that had more than a usual share of interesting events.

Some other events were:
The collapse of the Pittsburgh Pirates and the New York Giants.

The astonishing return to form of the New York Yankees.

The fall of Rogers Hornsby as a batting champion.

The smashing comeback of Babe Ruth.

The romantic and heroic work of Grover Alexander in the final game of the world's series.

The fall of the seven time Baltimore International League champions.

The retirement of Tris Speaker and Ty Cobb.

The release of Eddie Collins as manager of the Chicago White Sox.

The appointment of seven new

major league managers.

The victory of the St. Louis Cardinals in the National League pennant race and in the world's series was perhaps the most popular one ever scored.

The loss of Hornsby's batting championship was a sacrifice he had to make for the team as in the role of a manager in a hot driving race he could not afford to play for himself.

The collapse of the New York Giants was partly the result of a series of accidents and bad breaks, but the differences existing among the Pittsburgh players were so thoroughly aired in public that internal dissension is known to have caused their disappointing season.

After finishing another disappointing season in which he spent much of the time on the bench, Ty Cobb retired as the manager of the Detroit Tigers and George Moriarty, American League umpire, was named in his place.

The disappointing showing of the Cleveland Indians started such a row on Tris Speaker that he quit and decided to go into business.

Salary differences were said to have been responsible for the release of Eddie Collins as manager of the Chicago White Sox.

Other teams that have new managers are the Pirates, Donnie Bush instead of Bill McKechnie; the Red Sox, Bill Carrigan instead of Lee Fohl; the Phillies, Stuffy McInnis instead of Art Fletcher; the Browns, Dan Hawley instead of George Sisler; the Indians, Jack McAllister instead of Speaker; the White Sox, Ray Schalk instead of Collins.

NATIONAL LEAGUE MEN TO VOTE IN FAVOR OF LANDIS

RESOLUTION SEEKS HIS REAP- POINTMENT UNDER LONG TERM CONTRACT

LATTER MAY INCLUDE A SUB- STANTIAL RAISE IN SALARY

New York, Dec. 14.—(UP)—Club owners of the National League in their annual session here today will vote their confidence in the administration of Commissioner K. M. Landis, with a resolution favoring his reappointment under a new long term contract which may include a substantial increase in salary. The National League may vote for an increase of $10,000 a year in his salary with no change in the existing contract.

Garry Hermann, owner of the Cincinnati club, and former head of the baseball government that was succeeded by the commissioner plan, said he favored the increase and all the club owners who had discussed it with him were for it.

John A. Heydler, president of the league, already has gone on record in favor of the continuation of the present form of government and a new contract for Landis.

The routine will include a report by the National League president that it was a prosperous and successful season; that the Chicago Cubs did the best business in the league and that the St. Louis Cardinals won the pennant.

The St. Louis club was mentioned frequently in "rumor alley" because of the business differences that are said to have developed between Rogers Hornsby, manager, and his boss, Sam Breadon.

Breadon refused to discuss the case today and said the situation was being over-emphasized.

AT THIS season, when you are being urged on every hand to "Give this" and "Give that," be assured of this truth: Nothing you could give a pipe-smoker could make more of a hit than a generous supply of Prince Albert . . . mild, mellow, fragrant Prince Albert.

Here, for instance, is the crystal-glass humidor, all dolled up in holiday clothes. It contains a full pound of P. A.—the grandest tobacco that ever lined the bowl of a pipe. There's a little sponge in the top of the humidor to keep the tobacco "just right."

Every pipe-smoker on your list would be tickled to death to find this good-looking package among his gifts on Christmas morning. It will brighten the Big Day for him and furnish deep-down pipe-joy for the days that follow. The Prince Albert humidor, by all means!

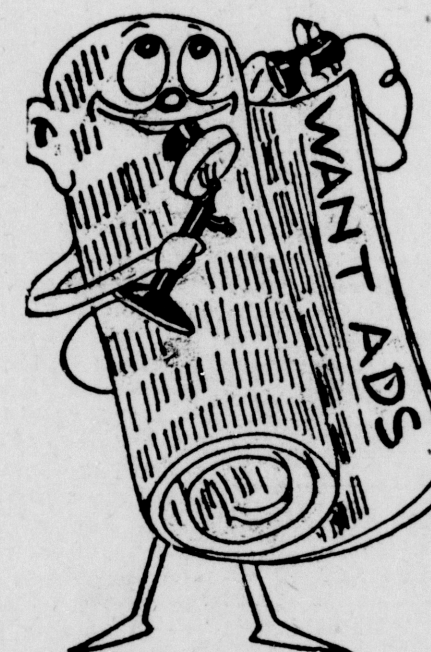

This prime favorite of experienced smokers also comes in pound and half-pound tins. At the nearest shop, you will find Prince Albert in sizes to suit every purse and purpose. If he smokes a pipe, your Christmas problem is settled . . . and settled satisfactorily.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

Winter sports will come into their own tonight when the Braierd Outdoor Sports club will hold an open meeting at the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 8 p. m. to take action on a number of matters concerning the promotion of winter weather employment.

With a slogan, "Make the winters shorter," as their impelling urge, members and their friends will lay a foundation for a continuing organization for the fostering of interest in such activities as skating, skiing, tobogganing and hockey. Dr. C. E. Anderson, newly elected president of the club, declares that Braierd citizens, with such a wealth of delightful winter weather, ought to be among the leading cities of the state in encouragement of these sports.

Dear friends:

A fellow in the store here the other day told about a man who took a nice present home to his wife, and right away she accused him of being drunk. She hadn't had a gift from him for so long that she was suspicious.

I hope there are no married men in Braierd like that. If I had a wife, I'd give her lots of presents. You can laugh at that all you want to, but I've noticed since I've been here at the Lundborg Jewellery store that the wives who get nice jewelry gifts occasionally always look the happiest. And so do the husbands who give them.

A BRAIGNED ON ASSAULT CHARGE

Four Men From Pine River Charged With Beating up Hotel Proprietor

AT PEQUOT, DECEMBER 12

William Musolf Taken to Hospital Here With Face Injuries

Four young men from Pine River are bemoaning their fate today as they try to secure $1,500 bail each to keep them out of jail until their trial on charges of second degree assault resulting from a severe beating William Musolf, proprietor of the Commercial hotel at Pequot received on Sunday, December 12.

The men charged with administering the assault are Dean Christian, Vane Jones, Wynn Robideau and Ted Lavole. They were arraigned this morning in municipal court before Judge Ezra R. Smith and the date of the preliminary hearing was set for Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Just why Musolf should have been the center of wrath of intruders at the hotel is a matter which will be threshed out at the trial. No motive is at present given except for the fact that the kind hearted proprietor is said to have attempted to intervene in a threatened mixup between the men and a piano tuner who was at the hotel at the time. Musolf when rescued from the mixup was sent to the St. Joseph's hospital in Braierd with a broken nose, a cracked jaw, and other injuries.

CHAPTER XIV
All through that wild, long night the Speedwell cruised the turbulent waters off Montauk, and anxious eyes strained to follow every yard of the systematic sweeping of her searchlight.

In vain.
Dawn broke—or, rather, the night merged almost imperceptibly into a morning of grayness and steady rain, while the gale abated but the seas continued to run high and fast toward the distant strand. Though no word went down from the bridge, yet somehow the news of what had happened permeated through the ship; and everyone of the guests, oblivious to the rain and ill-dressed against it, huddled along the forward rails—silently staring, staring.

It was a grave, a tragic group; far different from the lightly gabbling crowd who had started out the previous afternoon.

Terrible concern lent supernal power to Ranny's vision. A cry escaped his lips, simultaneously

"Joan—Joan—are you all right?"

with a grunt from Captain Marty, whose trained eyes had also seen that far blotch upon the water. A shiny, dark spot with two bobbing specks beside it.

"It's them!" the Captain shouted, after a rapid survey through his binoculars. He was genuinely excited for perhaps the first time in his life. "The dory's capsized. They're clinging to it!"

"Thank God!" cried Ranny. He, too, was unstrung, for the first time in his life. Trembling.

Clay took firm hold of his shoulders, and shook him encouragingly; while Stivner puffed furiously on a black cigar.

There had been enough excitement on this cruise to satisfy even a lumber king!

Within an incredibly brief time, Captain Marty maneuvered the big Speedwell alongside the castaways.

Abner, plain to behold was totally tuckered.

While seamen let down a rope ladder Ranny went overboard in a shallow dive and took physical control of the situation in the water.

"Joan, Joan, are you all right?" he spluttered beseechingly as he came up beside her and swiftly relieved her of the practically dead weight of Abner who was apparently in a semi-conscious condition. "Oh, Joan, why did you do this? Why, why?—Oh, I'm so sorry!"

Joan, a ghastly greenish white from nausea and fatigue, avoided his eyes—ignored him.

When the rope ladder fell within her reach, she scorned his helping hand, and dragged herself stiffly up until the willing hands on the yacht took hold of her. Then she collapsed; fainted dead away, as she was borne off to a cabin and the first aid of anxious women friends.

Ranny shifted Abner's sagging weight to his shoulder, and climbed up the rope ladder. Captain Marty looked Abner over contemptuously. "Nothing much the matter with him, except a scarcity of guts!" he commented harshly. "He'll be all right after a hooker. But if it hadn't been for the woman, the fool would have drowned!"

Ranny was rushing down to Joan's cabin when he met Clay, emerging.

Clay caught hold of him: "Here, now, Ranny, old son, take it easy!"

Listen to me—if you've ever had to keep your head, you have to keep it now!"

"Joan, Joan—is she all right?" Tell me, old man, tell me the truth!"

"Of course, she's all right! Done in, though. You'd be, too. Mrs. Teffens and a couple of the women are undressing her, rubbing her. The stewardess has warm blankets ready. There's no danger, and no need at all for you down there. So stay up here with me. I want to talk to you!"

Ranny, weak from a grateful flood of relief, suffered himself to be lead to an obscure corner of the deck by Clay; unwillingly, though.

"I ought to be down there with Joan. That's my place!" he kept repeating.

Clay soothed him lightly. "You wouldn't think so if you heard what she was saying about you! Blaming it all on you. The sight of you would be as welcome to her loving eyes now as a Klan speaker to Tammany Hall. But the point is this: She saved Abner! Got that? She saved Abner!"

"What are you driving at?"

"Simply this she'd never have had to save YOU. You would have saved her. It's a long, long circle, but that brings us back to what I warned you of the day of the game. She either rules, or is ruled. There's no give and take in her. Your mistake is that you softened on the domineering stuff, and patronizingly tried to compromise. You gave over being a cave-man and tried to be a broad-minded husband. You've taken her into your mental confidence, when you should have kept her guessing!"

"Well, well—"

"Well, just this. I've got a plan I have to do all your thinking for you, and I've got a plan. You're going to insist that she take Abner. This is a hopeless tangle, and you've got to go after a divorce. The place and the time are not propitious to tell you my plan now, except that hereafter instead of letting your wife in on all your thoughts—on this plan, particularly—your motto from this hour forward must be DON'T TELL THE WIFE!"

CHAPTER XV

For the rest of that cruise—and Stivner cut it short, under the circumstances, by having Captain Marty team back to Glen Cove as speedily as possible—Joan kept to her cabin and frigidly avoided her husband.

Abner, coming out of his daze of fear and physical weakness, made violent threats to have Ranny jailed—to prosecute all the conspirators, in fact, including Stivner and Captain Marty Wales.

Clay Varick, fat and foxy diplomat, soothed him out of that.

"I think you'll find a change," he said. "Forbes realizes that his wife no longer loves him, but loves you and would even sacrifice her life for you. I think you will find him—errr, tractable!"

"I hope so, for it's the only thing that'll bring you all out of jail!" Abner growled in the way a little and thoroughly frightened dog growls at big rough dogs from behind the safety of a high fence.

The yachting party had gone to smash, of course. Nobody could work up much fun in what was a cross between an armed camp and a morgue. A hearty laugh would have sounded as out of place there as at an inquest.

Of course, there were furtive snickers and a great deal of sub rosa jabbering in the smoking room, in the drawing room, and on the lounge deck. Here was the first decent, downright sensation in a jaded Society since Mrs. German eloped with her chauffeur—and this was heaps more thrilling.

But most of the gatherings were by twos and threes. The community spirit was playing possum, until the eagerly awaited near future date when all could get together without the restraint of the nearness of the event and the presence of the principals.

Distance and time would lend color to the tale!

The embroidery, in fact, had started already; whispered rumors, when the actors did not appear, of outlandish developments. Rumors, rumors everywhere, but never a stop to think!

Speculation, too. No end of it. Particularly over the mysteriously aloof and earnest conferences that took place, off and on, during the homeward run, between Ranny and Stivner and Clay.

The guests noted that there were many wise smiles exchanged among the three, to the accompaniment of much chuckling. Clearly, a plot was in the hatching—a plan was on the fire.

Mrs. Teffens added the final touch of gnawing misery to the all-consuming curiosity of the week-enders when she eagerly, yet furtively, broadcast the information that she had quite accidentally overheard Ranny warn Stivner:

"Remember, now, don't tell the wife!"

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture though, at home is messy and troublesome. For only 75 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger. —Adv.

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils. While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he constantly advised mothers to give only a harmless laxative which would help to establish natural bowel "regularity."

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin mothers have a regulating laxative which they can depend upon whenever a child is constipated, bilious, feverish or sick from a cold, indigestion or sour stomach. All children love its pleasant taste.

Don't Tell the Wife
BY WILLIAM B. COURTNEY
Copyright 1926 Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.

While they are all guests on a week-end cruise on the yacht of Stivner, a lumber king, a widow, Clara, camps Ranny, arousing Stivner's jealousy. But when Ranny avows Clara means nothing to him, Stivner aids Ranny punish Abner, who is trapped with Joan. Abner is set in a dory toward behind the yacht, Joan defiantly joins Abner, who recklessly cuts adrift. Lost in a storm, the dory capsizes.

CHAPTER XIV

All through that wild, long night the Speedwell cruised the turbulent waters off Montauk, and anxious eyes strained to follow every yard of the systematic sweeping of her searchlight.

In vain. EASY TO DARKEN

YOUR GRAY HAIR

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For only 75 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.—Advt.

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils. While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he constantly advised mothers to give only a harmless laxative which would help to establish natural bowel "regularity."

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin mothers have a regulating laxative which they can depend upon whenever a child is constipated, bilious, feverish or sick from a cold, indigestion or sour stomach. All children love its pleasant taste. Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself how perfectly it cleanses and regulates the bowels of infants and children.
